Notes: For BAC shoots, BAC members must arrive early (preferably no later than 9.45am) to help set out the field. Late arrival may result in archers not being permitted to shoot. If you arrive late, please stay to put the field away. BAC members must pay the BAC Tournaments Officer upon application for away shoots. Non-payment will result in no application being made for the archery. Where GNAS dress code is specified, those who do not comply might not be permitted to shoot. Archers should always wear GNAS colours when attending competition. Information was correct when published but may be subject to change
