Field Captain: The Armfield family

Weather conditions: damp and breezy. Challenging for those taking part.

Many thanks to the catering pixies, Jean Armfield and Sue Yeo. We were spoilt for choice with Sue's cakes and some of us even got to take some home!

EVOLUTION ARCHERS

Novelty Clout Competition Results - 140, 100 yards 19 March 2011

Professor Evo didn't stand a chance, yet again. Bromley arrived mob handed and quickly dispatched the evil Prof and his motley monsters. It was a glorious, sunny day in the wilds of Bickley. Thank you to the Evolutions for inviting us.

After a chilly start, the day turned out quite hot. Due to the popularity of the shoot (or perhaps it's those chocolaty prizes), George and Helen had to make an emergency Easter egg dash down to a local shop for more supplies.

George Gard Clout 17 April 2011

180, 120, 100 yards

After a slightly fraught start, distances were sorted out and George's birthday was celebrated in style.

Weather: hot, sunny and not what we're used to (just like last year's!).

A big thank you to the catering pixie: Jean Armfield (and to Sue for the cakes).

That's Not a Longbow Shoot Results 22 May 2011

Well done to everyone who took part in this challenging competition. Weather conditions were not ideal and there was plenty of kindling from broken arrows but everyone kept going.

Thank you to everyone who arrived early to prepare the field for shooting.

Marshalls: Thank you to Eric Armfield and Michael Herschell for keeping everyone safe. Weather: Very windy and cold. Mostly cloudy but with a bit of warm sun. A huge thank you to the catering team: Jean Armfield, Roy Walker and sous chef Steve Cheeseman.

Happy birthday to Pixie Leader Jean.

Midsummer Shoot Results 19 June 2011

Field Captain: Eric Armfield
Deputy: Helen Jeory
Round: Western

Weather: diabolical at times. Intermittent squally showers, sun, overcast sky, wind. Basically your typical, unpredictable English June day.

All archers shot a Western round. Some problems experienced with visitor arrows losing piles. This was blamed on defective arrow construction (a bit of glue usually helps), not BAC's hard bosses!

Ron Palmer Memorial Fun Clout Results 7 August 2011

We remembered our friend Ron Palmer at this two way fun clout. His memory lives on in the hearts and minds of those who knew him.

The weather was typically English summertime fare with a heavy squally shower which prompted the last end to be just that. For the most part the wind blew but the sun was out for a lot of the time.

Christmas Clout Results

11 December 2011

One way clout - 3 dozen 180, 140, 100 yards

Weather conditions:

Overcast, windy and cold

Special thanks to Akela (Jean Armfield) for cooking up a storm.

This is the first year a Father Christmas figure was placed in front of the main compounds. Those daring to shoot said bringer of presents were deducted three points. First to do so was our own Eric Armfield followed a couple of ends later by Jillian Byers. Akela will be having words with you at some point. The knight behind the compounds was fairly safe but fell apart all by himself due to the adverse conditions.
